QEP Fall Symposium

INTERPROFESSIONAL TEAMWORK

October 26, 2012

KEYNOTE PRESENTATION

Jennifer Arnold, M.D., MSc, FAAP
Dr. Arnold is currently the medical director of the Simulation Center at Texas Children's Hospital and is an assistant professor of pediatrics in the Division of Neonatology at Baylor College of Medicine and Texas Children's Hospital in Houston, Texas. In her nearly non-existent free time, Dr. Arnold enjoys travel, painting, fishing and spending time with family and friends.

Together with her husband Bill Arnold, Dr. Arnold leads an interesting — and uniquely public — private life. She co-stars on TLC's docu-drama, "The Little Couple," which follows the Arnold's personal and professional lives, and is now entering its fifth season. Dr. Arnold has also appeared on television programs including "The Oprah Winfrey Show," "The Today Show," "Good Morning, America," "Dr. OZ" and "The Doctors."

MORNING CONCURRENT SESSIONS

Integrating interprofessional teamwork into practice
Facilitator: Paul Uhlig, M.D., MPA

Demonstration on how to integrate interprofessional teamwork into simulation scenarios
Facilitators: Kelly Wallin, Melissa Cashin, Susan Leong-Kee and Dan Feux

Morning sessions designed for faculty, students and staff

NOON POSTER PRESENTATIONS

- QEP seed grant recipients
- ITPS/IEPS survey results by the Office of Institutional Planning and Assessment
- 2012 Student Research Week interprofessional teamwork poster competition award recipients
- 2012 CLARION case study competition award recipients
- Interprofessional teamwork posters by TTUHSC faculty

AFTERNOON SESSION

Interprofessional Teamwork Case Study

Afternoon session designed for students and facilitated by students and faculty

Attendance at the entire symposium is not required.
Symposium available by TechLinkHD to regional campuses.

TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTER™
Quality Enhancement Plan and the Office of Academic Affairs