

Nursing student honors faculty member

Amanda Veasart, RN, MSN, CCRN, was recently honored as an outstanding teacher at Texas Tech University's Mortar Board Apple Polishing Reception.

Veasart, instructor and clinical site coordinator for the Texas

Tech University Health Sciences Center School of Nursing was nominated for recognition by nursing student and Mortar Board member Meredith Miller. Through Veasart's informative lectures, simulation training and strong clinical experience, Miller realized that the Intensive Care Unit is where she belongs. "I thrive when I hear the stories about her critical care experiences. She is a mentor who brings nursing to life," said Miller.

Amanda Veasart, RN, MSN, CCRN

Mortar Board is a national senior honor society representing the best and the brightest seniors across the United States who have outstanding achievements in scholarship, leadership and service. Texas Tech Universities Mortar Board Forum Chapter is comprised of the top 50 seniors on campus and its purpose is to excel through scholarship, leadership, and service benefiting the Texas Tech campus and the Lubbock community.

Some notable Mortar Board members include former President Jimmy Carter, Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, Lance Armstrong and former Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor.