

1981

The School of Allied Health Sciences seats its first class, following approval by the 67th Texas Legislature. The school name officially changes to School of Health Professions in 2015.

1988

The university holds its first Student Research Week. Today, the student-led event attracts more than 200 entries, with representation from every school and multiple campuses.

1995

TTUHSC receives its first U.S. patent, granted for an artificial blood substitute created by Mario Feola, MD, Jan Simoni, DVN, PhD, and Peter C. Canizaro, MD.

2010

F. Marie Hall SimLife Center opens on Lubbock campus and serves as a model for simulation training centers nationwide. Today, state-of-the-art simulation training is available at every TTUHSC campus.

90's

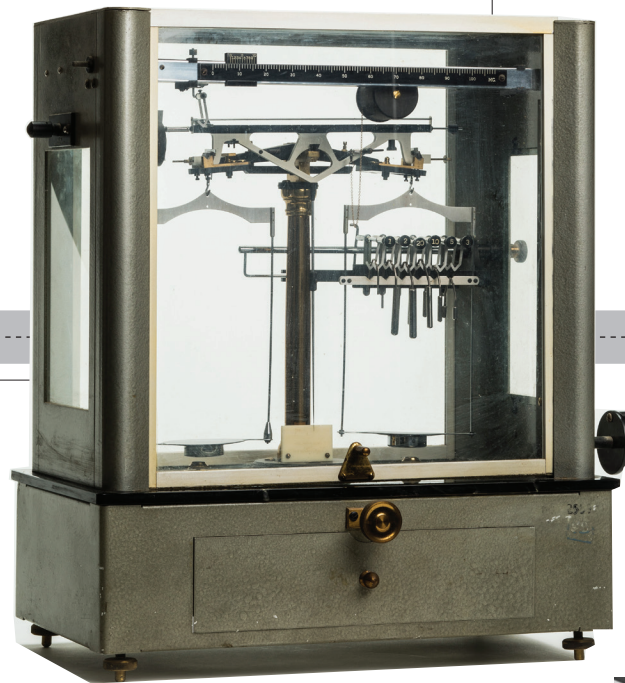

1980

1990

2000

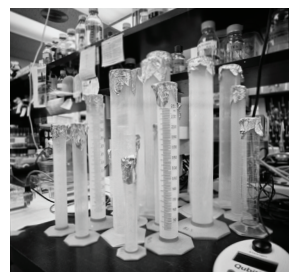

80's

00's

1985

The School of Nursing expands to the Permian Basin. The 67th Texas Legislature approved a nursing school for the university in 1981 with the first class seated on Lubbock campus.

1991

The 72nd Texas Legislature establishes the Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences to coordinate graduate programs in the School of Medicine.

1996

School of Pharmacy seats its first class. The 73rd Texas Legislature created the school in 1993 based in Amarillo.

2007

TTUHSC Abilene campus opens with 40-member School of Pharmacy class. The campus now also houses nursing and biomedical sciences, including the public health program.

2015

School of Nursing becomes one of the first schools to offer academic credit for military medical experience with the addition of the Veteran to Bachelor of Science in Nursing program. 