EMPLOYEE INFORMATION – O-1

Evidence of O-1 Qualifications:

The O-1 category requires the University to provide evidence that the professor or researcher is significantly recognized) essentially recognized as outstanding) in the academic field specified in the petition. In order to successfully petition for an O-1 visa, the following must be provided to USCIS:

- ❖ Evidence that the beneficiary has received a major, internationally-recognized award, such as a Nobel Prize,

OR

- ❖ Evidence of at least three, and preferably four of the following:

1. ICS must include a detailed discussion of how the foreign national employee qualifies for the O-1 visa status. In order to do so ICS needs information about the research or clinical work. Therefore, the foreign national must provide a Professional Statement of Research or Clinical Work. The Professional Statement must explain the research or clinical work and its importance. The statement needs to be clear but detailed and written so that an average honors-level high school student would understand it. Explain your area of research or clinical work and your specific role and/or contributions to the area. Also explain the importance of the work to the USA or on a global scale. A sample will be provided upon request.
2. Copy of each abstract, journal article, presentation, or other written professional work show on your CV.
3. Receipt of lesser nationally or internationally recognized prizes or awards for excellence in the field of endeavor
4. Membership in associations in the field for which classification is sought which require outstanding achievements, as judged by recognized national or international experts in the field
5. Published material in professional or major trade publications, newspapers or other major media about the beneficiary and the beneficiary's work in the field for which classification is sought
6. Original scientific, scholarly, or business-related contributions of major significance in the field
7. Authorship of scholarly articles in professional journals or other major media in the field for which classification is sought
8. A high salary or other remuneration for services as evidenced by contracts or other reliable evidence
9. Participation on a panel, or individually, as a judge of the work of others in the same or in a field of specialization allied to that field for which classification is sought
10. Employment in a critical or essential capacity for organizations and establishments that have a distinguished reputation
11. Letters from distinguished members of the academic field who can attest to the outstanding quality of the foreign employees work and his/her international recognition

EMPLOYEE QUESTIONNAIRE (O-1)

Please answer all questions completely. If the answer to a question is NONE or NOT APPLICABLE, please state 'None' or 'N/A'. Do not leave any blanks. Uncompleted forms, or forms without all required documents will be returned to you for completion. To avoid delays, please answer every question.

Note: Note: If you are requesting a change of status while in the USA, and leave the USA before approval, you cannot return until the O-1 petition is approved, and you are issued an O-1 visa from a US Consulate. Premium Processing may be required. If you are requesting an extension of O-1 status, you can leave the USA while the application is pending but you may have to obtain an O-1 visa from a US Consulate. Please speak with ICS prior to traveling.

INFORMATION FOR EMPLOYEE FAMILY MEMBERS SEEKING O-3 STATUS

USCIS Form I-539 must be completed to obtain O-3 visa status only if the family members are in the USA. Form I-539 and the instructions can be found on the website at <http://www.uscis.gov/i-539>.

Note: If you need to file an I-539 application to change or extend O-3 status for family members, you must return your documents by mail as original signatures are required on the I-539 form.

PLEASE READ: ICS and TTUHSC cannot serve as your legal representative for O-3 visa status purposes and cannot serve as your legal representative for any part of the I-539 process. As a courtesy, ICS will do the following:

1. Review the I-539 form to ensure all questions are answered and there are no obvious errors (e.g. accidentally writing your birth year as 2015);
2. Provide the usual checklist of documents to be included in the I-539 filing (see below);
3. File the completed I-539 along with the E-3 filing.

The O-1 petition can be filed without the I-539 (O-3) application but it is strongly advised that both are filed together to ensure that all family members are approved at the same time.

The current USCIS filing fee information is here I-539 Fee. Remember that there is an additional biometric fee for each family member needing O-3 status. You must include the filing fee payment with the completed I-539. USCIS cannot accept your I-539 filing without payment.

INCLUDE ONE CLEAR PHOTOCOPY OF EACH DOCUMENT

- ___ Adoption records, if relevant
- ___ Marriage certificate with certified English translation (if necessary)
- ___ Birth certificate of all children, with certified English translation
- ___ Passport biological data page for each family member and passport expiration date
- ___ Current US non-immigrant visa for each family member
- ___ I-94 document for each family member
- ___ All prior forms I-797 documenting the approval of applications to change or extend status (if any)
- ___ Copy of the I-612 approval notice showing §212(e) waiver
- ___ Copies of all IAP-66, DS-2019 documents of I-20 documents
- ___ Evidence that the O-1 family member was in lawful status

Please read the I-539 Instructions for additional information about what must be included with your application.
