Office of Student Financial Aid

The Department of Education was unable to determine your eligibility based on your FAFSA information. You must present your original citizenship document to a Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center staff member to be examined and copied for your financial aid file. Please stop by the appropriate office at your earliest convenience with the original document. We will make a photocopy for your financial aid file. If you are presenting your document(s) in person, you are not required to submit the attached Certification of Original Citizenship & Identification Documents form. The staff member assisting you will forward your information to the Financial Aid Office for your file to be updated.

Certification of Original Citizenship & Identification Documents

This current or prospective student is unable to appear in person at the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center to present his or her original citizenship document as required by the U.S. Department of Education for the purpose of qualifying for federal financial aid funds. The U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services of the Department of Homeland Security permits that these documents may be photocopied for lawful purposes, such as documenting eligibility for federal student aid funds.

Notary Certification: Please make a legible photocopy of the front and back of the student's original citizenship document, and valid government-issued photo identification card. Place your signature and seal on this form to certify that, to the best your knowledge, the student has presented his or her said document(s). Please complete the information below.
