Global Perspectives FILM SERIES

Reckonings

Thursday, January 25

12 - 1 PM on Zoom

In the aftermath of the Holocaust, German and Jewish leaders met in secret to negotiate the unthinkable - compensation for the survivors of the largest mass genocide in history. Survivors were in urgent need of help, but how could reparations be determined for the unprecedented destruction and suffering of a people? This is the first documentary feature to chronicle the harrowing process of negotiating German reparations for the Jewish people, which resulted in the groundbreaking Luxembourg Agreements of 1952. The film powerfully models how political will and a moral imperative can join forces to bridge an impossible divide.
