Cuba: A Second Look featuring Robert Casanova, MD Associate Professor, OB/GYN

Tuesday, April 3, 2012

12:00 noon

ACB 110

Please note day and room change!

Robert Casanova, MD was born in Cuba. He left his country of origin as a child when his parents migrated to the U.S. During this presentation, Dr. Casanova will share information about the Cuban health care system and some lessons for border and rural health. He will also talk briefly about recent changes in U.S. policy towards Cuba and how the policy changes may impact the future relationship between the countries.
