

Information Form for “Big-Little” Peer Mentor Program

Description

The "Big-Little" Mentor Program was created and maintained by Occupational Therapy (OT) students. This peer mentor program matches an incoming 1st year OT student with an OT student in the 2nd year of the program (i.e., "Big"). You will meet your "Big" peer mentor the first week of classes. Peer mentors provide support and encouragement to incoming students. Participation in this peer mentor program is not required. If you choose to participate, please complete the below information and send to the email address below by the due date.
