

TTUHSC Libraries' Journal Collection

The TTUHSC Libraries contain numerous journals in the medical, nursing, life sciences, psychiatric, and allied health fields. Journals can be available: in both print and electronic formats; only in print; or only in electronic format.

If a journal is only available in print, the Libraries' Circulation department can provide copies. Please contact the Circulation department at your affiliated campus. In Lubbock, the phone number is 806-743-2200; Amarillo: 806-354-5448; El Paso: 915-545-6650; and Odessa: 432-335-5172.

There is a $0.25 per page charge for this service ($4.00/max.). Rush service is $0.50 per page ($10.00/max.). Copy services offered by the circulation staff may be charged to a department account or be paid on an individual cash or check basis.

How Do I Find Online Articles?

If an article is available electronically, you have several ways of accessing it. You may be able to access the article through the database that you are currently searching or through Gold Rush.

Databases

The TTUHSC Libraries has numerous full-text databases. CINAHL Plus, EMBASE, PubMed, OVID, Scopus, TexShare, and the Web of Science are just a few of the more commonly used databases.

The link to the article may be called different things in different databases: HTML Full Text, Linked Full-Text, PDF, or TTUHSC Online.

If a database is not full-text or does not provide a full-text link, please consult Gold Rush to see if the TTUHSC Libraries subscribe to the journal.

Gold Rush

Gold Rush enables you to go directly to a full-text journal's link where you can either browse journal issues or search within the publication.

To access Gold Rush, go to the TTUHSC Libraries' home page and locate the Online Journals link. Mouse-over this link and you will see a link to Gold Rush (all TTUHSC online journals) appear to the left.

Type in a journal's name in the search box and click on "Search".
