TOPIC	DISCUSSION	ACTION
Jo Ann VanSchaik, Sr. Director Technical Services, Library	Scholarly Stats: Library purchased a new package which tracks usage for electronic journals and databases Journals: Web edition journals will not be available in 2008 (print only) due to a lack of finances for funding
William Ratnoff, M.D., Internal Medicine	Question: If you attempt a link through GoldRush and it fails, is there a way to register that information. Could Joe create a web message or a menu addressing the error? Journals: reiterated the need to have electronic	JoAnn will look into (will check with IT to see if problem can be addressed)
Barbara Ballew, Reference Librarian	Stat!Ref Demo: New product called An@tomy.tv which is a 3-D interactive program consisting of various modules including illustrations accompanied by text and quiz components; licensed for 5 concurrent users; produced in Great Britain	Dr. Graham recommended sending out an announcement introducing new interactive program

Old Business	Extension of Library Hours: Candia provided reports showing the student usage of the library during trial period; the numbers included Circulation and LRC; there were more staff members than patrons; the numbers do not illustrate pressing need to extend library hours as students requested	Students surprised by numbers, especially since there have been complaints about library hours; students may now reserve rooms in ACB
Judy Orr, Sr. Director Public Services, Library	E-Reserve follow-up: it was a server issue; IT has resolved the problem e-Podunk follow-up: Joe has created a link on the Library website
