

DOCTOR OF MEDICINE / DOCTOR OF JURISPRUDENCE

The M.D./J.D. program is a six-year program designed specifically for individuals interested in the areas of health law, health care policy, bioterrorism, forensics or biomedical compliance. The dual degree program of study is administered by the Texas Tech University School of Law and Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center School of Medicine. Students complete 78 hours of the Texas Tech University School of Law curriculum after the third year of medical school.
