

John Henderson, MBA

John Henderson is proven healthcare executive leader with twenty years' experience in hospital operations and association management. He is adept at establishing professional relationships with state and federal officials, community members, governing board, medical staff, managers and employees. He is also an achiever with the ability to balance financial stewardship with people and purpose.

In 2018 he became the president/CEO of TORCH (Texas Organization of Rural and Community Hospitals). As such, he works for the 158 rural Texas Hospitals – primarily in the areas of advocacy and education. Prior to joining TORCH, John served as CEO at his hometown hospital (Childress Regional Medical Center) for 16 years. During that time, he served as chairman of both the TORCH and THA (Texas Hospital Association) boards.
