The Office of Accredited Interprofessional Continuing Medical Education has upgraded its services to allow activity participants to access their TTUHSC CME records online. By logging in to My Portal you will be able retrieve and print your own TTUHSC CME Transcript for a date range of your choice for activities from September 2011 to the present. Other items included in My Portal is the ability to update your profile information, complete evaluations, check-in to activities, view your registration and credit history, and print or reprint certificates as needed.

Anyone that has previously attended a TTUHSC CME program/activity has an activity record in our database. In order to access your records, you will need to use the email address that is currently associated with your records in our database. See below for more information about email addresses. When creating an account, the first time that you access My Portal, you will select a password of your choosing. Your participant profiles and records will be accessible once you log in.

VERY IMPORTANT: All account holders in our system must have an individual/separate email address. No two users can have the same email address. If you believe that you share an email address with someone else in our system, please contact the CME office before accessing your profile to avoid making changes that could result in critical errors in your or someone else’s CME records.

Access to your My Portal account is through the CME website www.ttuhsc.edu/medicine/continuing-medical-education

Be sure that your Pop-Up blocker is turned off in your browser before accessing the system.
