██████████ has shown great interest in research and the world of interventional cardiology ever since last spring, when he began working under my colleague Dr. Mac Ansari (whom we will be closely collaborating with on this project). To my knowledge, ██████████ has completed his academic requirements without fail or the necessity to remediate any exams and has presented an abstract and a poster at two national cardiology conferences over the summer. ██████████ is very driven to advance our current STEMI and cardiogenic shock databases, aiming to find disparities in care and demographics that may be affecting patient outcomes. I am fully committed to guiding him and assisting him as he helps to construct and analyze these indexes. I am excited to work with ██████████ as he is a student who is very willing to learn and contribute to our cause in improving cardiovascular patient care.

Sincerely,
