RHEUMATOLOGY ROTATION

1. Rotation Details
   - Internal Medicine Clinic
   - 1 month block

2. Educational Objectives
   - Develop competency in the evaluation of patients with acute and chronic joint disorders.
   - Develop competency in evaluation and management of patients with multi-system collagen vascular diseases.
   - Develop competency in arthrocentesis.

3. Educational Methods and Resources
   - Disease mix - Adult patients with diverse rheumatologic disorders
   - Clinical activities - Evaluation of new clinic patients and outpatient consults
   - Management of established clinic patients
   - Joint arthrocentesis
   - Joint injection with therapeutic medications
   - Reading - MKSAP-14 series (Rheumatology)
   - Teaching - Rheumatology subspecialty block conferences
   - Case management

4. Evaluation Methods
   - End of rotation evaluation form

5. Supervision and Responsibilities
   - Department of Internal Medicine faculty will supervise all clinical activities

6. Special Emphasis/Curriculum Enhancement
   - Arthrocentesis