Student Financial Aid 2023-2024

Keys to Financial Aid Success

School of Medicine Financial Aid Information

General Information

Financial Aid

Financial aid is defined as assistance to pay for your educational expenses. These expenses include tuition, fees, books, supplies, instruments and living expenses while in school. Any assistance is considered "financial aid" regardless of the source.

These sources are:

- Grants—Funds from Federal & State sources that do not require repayment
- Scholarships—State, institutional & organizational funds that do not require repayment
- Loan Programs—Money that must be paid back. May consist of Federal, private & institutional loans
- Departmental Payments/Waivers—Assistance with tuition and fees while in school
- Veteran's Benefits—Hazelwood, Ch. 33, etc. Contact the TTUHSC VA Coordinator at 806-743-7549 for more details

Student Eligibility:

- Students must be accepted and admitted into a degree granting program
- If your file is completed before you are accepted into the program, your financial aid file will be placed in a holding status pending notification of acceptance

TTUHSC SOM Scholarship Process

Annual Process

- Complete and submit SOM Scholarship application to Lubbock SOM Admissions
- Complete annual FAFSA

Website for application and more information:

<https://www.ttuhs.edu/medicine/admissions/scholarship-information.aspx>

TTUHSC Financial Aid Process

Complete a 2023-2024 FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) for TTUHSC at:
<https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa>

TTU Health Sciences Center - FAFSA school code: 016024

As you are entering a graduate/professional program, you are now considered an independent student on the FAFSA. This means you are no longer required to provide parent information on your FAFSA. In addition, TTUHSC does not require medical students to provide any parental information on the FAFSA.

Financial Aid Timeline

- October-student completes new year's FAFSA
- March-student completes financial aid application
- April 1st-deadline for SOM scholarship application
- May-TTUHSC Financial Aid Office will determine your financial aid eligibility for the upcoming school year
- May-Award notifications will be emailed to students
 - Student accepts financial aid offer(s)
 - If accepting loans, students must also complete the loan application process (details are included with students award notifications)
- Financial aid is disbursed 10 days prior to the start of each semester
- Financial aid is applied to student's tuition & fee account; Student Business Services will issue refunds of any remaining funds
