Literature Searching

Do you need to find articles on a specific topic, or do you have a presentation to prepare? The Library provides access to a variety of databases for your searching needs. Each database has supporting material, either an online tutorial, or a PDF file to aid you when searching. Be sure to contact the library staff if you need searching assistance.

- PubMed
  - For Medline searches from simple to complex
  - Online tutorial available
- ISI Web of Knowledge
  - Search for broader information in the sciences, chemistry and biology
- MD Consult
  - Search books, journals, drug information and more
  - Note that this link is to the TTUHSC Databases alphabetic list. Scroll to MD Consult and click the link to get to the database
- OVID Medline
  - Another access point for the Medline database
- OVID EBM
  - Online access to the Cochrane Evidence Based Medicine Collection
  - Includes Cochrane Systematic Reviews
- OVID PsychInfo
  - Literature covering topics in psychological, social, behavioral, and health sciences
