

20

ECONOMIC IMPACT REPORT

18

fifty years ago // // // //

Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center (TTUHSC) was charged with a mission to improve lives by providing the world's best health care education and services. Today, TTUHSC is making a positive impact on communities by developing support of local markets and employment, revolutionizing research methods and improving health care standards across Texas.

---

HERE'S HOW TTUHSC HAS MADE AN ECONOMIC IMPACT IN OVER 108 WEST TEXAS COUNTIES IN 2017.

---

Our Areas of Work // // //

As one of Texas' leading comprehensive health care facilities, TTUHSC focuses on education, patient care and research to promote healthier communities across West Texas, Dallas and beyond.

Education

Graduating over 20,000 students since 1974, TTUHSC provides academic programs of the highest caliber to help students become collaborative and expert health care professionals.

Care

Care is one of the university's top priorities. By reaching out to local communities and providing a positive patient experience sets TTUHSC apart from other medical centers in Texas.

Research

Since the university's inception, TTUHSC's team of health care experts have endeavored to advance knowledge through innovative study. With a focus on collective research, our team works hard to secure new funding, advance knowledge and make revolutionary discoveries.

State-Wide Impact //

TTUHSC's goal is to make a larger impact on the great state of Texas. The university has provided sustainable jobs and created substantial economic impact, making TTUHSC an influential health care center.

14,751

Jobs Created & Sustained

TTUHSC provides over 14,000 jobs across six Texas campuses, furthering the goal of becoming an employer of choice.

$749,164,818

Earned

Across six TTUHSC campuses, employees have earned $749+ million to build sustainable household income in 2017.

$1,895,443,087

Generated

TTUHSC has increased local economic output by over $1.89 billion across Texas in 2017.

Lubbock //

Lubbock, Texas is a central hub for health care in the South Plains and Eastern New Mexico. The TTUHSC Lubbock campus plays a significant role in innovation and support. By making an impact on the South Plains, TTUHSC improves the overall quality of life by providing jobs and supporting the local economy.

8,369 / Jobs

TTUHSC Lubbock alone provides 8,369 jobs in the South Plains and Eastern New Mexico.

$307,932,957 / Income

TTUHSC's dedicated employees earned $307+ million in household income in 2017.

$947,165,977 / Economic Output

TTUHSC has increased local economic output by over $947 million dollars in 2017.

Amarillo // // //

Amarillo, Texas is home to the Laura W. Bush Institute for Women's Health, Schools of Medicine, Nursing, Health Professions, Pharmacy and more. Providing the Panhandle with expert health care opportunities, the Amarillo campus has made a sizable economic impact on the community.

Jobs / 2,170

TTUHSC provides over 2,000 jobs in Amarillo, Texas.

Income / $58,922,624

TTUHSC Amarillo employees have earned $58+ million in 2017.

Economic Output / $215,867,506

TTUHSC in Amarillo has increased local economic output by over $215+ million in 2017.

Midland // // //

The TTUHSC Midland campus is home to the innovative Master of Physician Assistant Studies program, Texas Tech Physicians and the Behavior Health Clinic, making a substantial economic impact for the Permian Basin.

111 / Jobs

TTUHSC provides over 100 jobs in Midland, Texas.

$3,911,185 / Income

In 2017 Midland employees have earned $3+ million.

$11,545,381 / Economic Output

The Midland campus alone has increased local economic output by over $11 million in 2017.

Odessa //

TTUHSC at Odessa opened its doors in 1999. Today, the campus consists of the School of Medicine, School of Nursing and School of Health Professions. Ranking one of the finest within the state of Texas, TTUHSC Odessa campus provides premiere learning environments ideal for providing jobs and increasing economic labor output.

Jobs / 881

TTUHSC provides over 800 jobs in Odessa, Texas.

Income / $40,522,697

TTUHSC employees in Odessa have earned $40+ million in 2017.

Economic Output / $124,435,323

The Odessa campus has increased local economic output in Odessa by $120+ million in 2017.

Abilene // // //

The Schools of Nursing, Pharmacy and Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences in Amarillo are among the top institutions in Texas.

321 / Jobs

TTUHSC has created 321 jobs in Abilene, Texas.

$13,508,828 / Income

In Abilene, TTUHSC employees have earned a combined $13+ million in 2017.

$34,827,189 / Economic Output

TTUHSC has increased local economic output by over $34 million in 2017.

Dallas //

The TTUHSC Dallas campus offers clinical practice and research programs for third- and fourth-year Doctor of Pharmacy students. Partnering with some of Dallas-Forth Worth's leading health care providers, the Dallas campus is a prime location for economic impact.

Jobs / 101

TTUHSC provides over 100 jobs in the Dallas area.

Income / $6,937,161

In Dallas, TTUHSC employees have earned $6.9 million in household income in 2017.

Economic Output / $14,264,440

TTUHSC Dallas campus has increased local economic output by $14+ million in 2017.

2017 Enrollment Table /////

	HEALTH PROFESSIONS	BIOMEDICAL SCIENCES	MEDICINE	NURSING	PHARMACY	TOTAL
Amarillo	51	44	108		289	492
Abilene		13		141	145	299
Permian Basin	162		49	43		254
Lubbock	642	107	567	360	36	1,712
Dallas					142	142
Distance	591			1,297		1,888

Grand Total / 4,787

And this is just the BEGINNING.

Office of the President

---

806.743.2900