Halloween Photos for TTUHSC Social Media

Faculty, staff, and students are invited to submit photos of themselves in Halloween costumes to be featured on TTUHSC social media channels this Halloween! Please email your photos to kelly.podzemny@ttuhsc.edu with the subject line "TTUHSC Halloween" by Monday, October 31st at 3 p.m. to be included in the large album we'll publish to the main TTUHSC Facebook page.

A few guidelines for the photos:

- Include your name, title, school/department, and campus location in the email.
- Costumes must be family-friendly
- When emailing photos from an iPhone, be sure to select "Actual Size" so that we have high resolution copies.
- No kids or minors in photos please. (We know they're cute, but we don't have proper consent forms completed to publish their photos.)

$20 3D Printing Credit at the TTUHSC Libraries

As part of a SCAMeL funded award, the Methodology Lab within the Libraries of the Health Sciences has allocated a twenty-dollar credit towards a 3D print of your choice. For a limited time only, we are offering Dia de Muertos Skull Plaques and papel picado 3D printed as coasters! Use your $20 credit to request a 3D print today! <http://tinyurl.com/yymy2kyt>

BMJ Case Reports

Publishing as a student is a great addition to your CV and helps establish your reputation within your field. The TTUHSC Libraries has an institutional subscription to the journal, BMJ Case Reports. The journal is a collection of over 19,000 peer-reviewed case reports in all disciplines for health care professionals. TTUHSC students can submit case reports with the journal for free. For more information, please see our webpage: <https://ttuhsc.libguides.com/bmjcasereports>.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Dia de los Muertos Celebration

The 2022 Dia de los Muertos Celebration hosted by the Office of Global Health, Medical Spanish Club, Global Health Alliance, and Empathy and Advocacy Book Club will be held on November 1st. Lunch will be served at noon to the first 200 guests. For more information, please contact the Office of Global Health at globalhealth@ttuhsc.edu.

The Empathy & Advocacy Book Club will be hosting a book drive at the Dia de los Muertos celebration. Stop by the community altar station to donate a new or gently used book in memory of a loved one. The first 20 book donors at the event will receive a free Dia de los Muertos candle.

- Tuesday, November 1st | 11:30 am - 1:00 pm | ACB Lobby

HSC Huddle

Join the Office of the President and Statline TV to hear about the latest updates and important topics at TTUHSC. Zoom link will be sent out via HSC email.

- Thursday, November 3rd | 12:00 - 1:00 pm | Zoom

GiRL Power

The Laura W. Bush Institute for Women's Health is set to host GiRL Power: Girls in Real Life on November 3rd. This year's theme is "You Glow Girl" and will feature keynote speaker Rebekah Siegfriedt, a lead strategic systems engineer at NASA. Fifth to eighth grade girls are encouraged to attend along with a female guardian. Entry is $5 per person. For more information or to register, visit www.laurabushinstitute.org. Use promo code GP2022 for free registration.

- Thursday, November 3rd | 6:00 - 8:00 pm | Amarillo Civic Center, Regency Room

IPE Fall Symposium

The IPE Fall Symposium is an annual event hosted by the Office of Interprofessional Education that provides an opportunity to learn about, from, and with one another to enable effective collaboration and improve health outcomes.

This year's symposium is titled: Piercing the Darkness of Human Trafficking: Building Trust Through Interprofessional Collaboration and Communication. Rebekah Charleston, M.Crim., will kick off the IPE Fall Symposium with her keynote, Tragedy to Triumph: A Trafficking Survivor's Perspective. Bekah Charleston will share her sex trafficking survivor's story through more than ten years of abuse and victimization at the hands of multiple pimps/traffickers. She will also discuss ways the healthcare team can engage with victims and collaborate with law enforcement and restorative services.

- Friday, November 4th | 9 am - 3 pm | Zoom

Story to Health Workshop

The Story to Health workshop will be on November 5th. The theme of the event will be built around experiences of gratitude. Gratitude is a powerful influencer of health backed by tradition and science. Coupling stories and gratitude, this workshop will give nudges to help you look for your story. All are welcome regardless of their educational background. It will be a productive couple of hours to seek and share life stories.

- Saturday, November 5th | 1:00 - 3:00 pm | Fort Stockton Community Theatre (Fort Stockton, TX)
