Easier Full-Text Access Using LibKey Nomad

LibKey Nomad is a browser extension for Google Chrome that simplifies downloading TTUHSC full text articles while researching on the internet especially when you are off campus. For more information on how to download the extension, please see the TTUHSC Libraries' webpage: <https://ttuhsc.libanswers.com/faq/271039>.

2021-2022 FAFSA Opens on October 1st

The 2021-2022 FAFSA form will be available starting Thursday, October 1st. The FAFSA form is needed when applying for all types of financial aid, including federal and state grants, federal and state loans, and institutional scholarships. The 2021-2022 FAFSA form will be used to offer financial aid for the summer 2021, fall 2021, and spring 2022 TTUHSC semesters. Visit fafsa.gov and fill it out on a computer or mobile device. As a reminder, TTUHSC's FAFSA school code is 016024.

BMJ Case Reports

Publishing as a student is a great addition to your CV and helps establish your reputation within your field. The TTUHSC Libraries has an institutional subscription to the journal, BMJ Case Reports. The journal is a collection of over 19,000 peer-reviewed case reports in all disciplines for health care professionals and researchers. TTUHSC students can submit case reports with the journal for free. For more information, please see our webpage: <https://ttuhsc.libguides.com/bmjcasereports>.

Registration for IPE Fall Symposium is Open

Registration for the IPE Fall Symposium is now open. For 2020, the IPE Fall Symposium will be held in an online format through VConfernceOnline, on November 6th from 9:00 am – 3:30 pm. This year's symposium is titled: Interprofessional Collaboration: Life Beyond Treatment and features keynotes, Suleika Jaouad and Cheryl Erwin, JD, Ph.D. Suleika Jaouad (Suleika.jaouad.com) will kick off the IPE Fall Symposium with her keynote address, What Almost Dying Taught Me About Living. Suleika will share her personal story of living with Leukemia, the teamwork and collaboration needed in providing quality care, and the need for empathy and awareness of the patient experience beyond healing patients.

Registration is free and can be accessed through our VConferenceOnline conference link at <http://bit.ly/ipefsregister>. In the registration process, participants will be asked to create a user name and password that will also serve as the access point for the event.

For more information on the symposium, please contact the Office of Interprofessional Education at (806) 743-2028, email us at ipe@ttuhsc.edu, or visit our website www.ttuhsc.edu/interprofessional-education.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Events & Opportunities for Students

The Office of Global Health Culture In... Series

The Office of Global Health invites you to participate in a new offering! Culture In... will focus on bringing cultural education to the TTUHSC community in the form of microlearning events. Our goal is to provide fun, engaging and educational content that our audience can participate in live and supports our departmental vision/mission for the TTUHSC community of creating a more Globally Engaged Citizenry. The series offers short (30 minute) cultural topics covering four subject areas: Food, Movement, Wellness/Life, and Music. For this Culture In... segment, we will focus on Wellness and Life through Dr. Mou's presentation titled Mindfulness during the pandemic.
